Open Access License Policy

International Journal of Computing, Intelligent and Communication Technology (IJCICT) having ISSN 2319 – 748X, being published quarterly (March, June, September & December) by Consilio Intelligence Research Lab, Noida. The journal is being published since 2012. It aims to publish original, theoretical and practical advances in Computing, Intelligence Technologies, Communication Technologies, Computer Science, Information Technology and all interdisciplinary streams of Engineering Sciences. It intends to disseminate original, scientific, theoretical or applied research in the field of Computing, Intelligence Technology and Communication Technology and allied fields. It provides a platform for publishing results and research with a strong empirical component. It aims to bridge the significant gap between research and practice by promoting the publication of original, novel, industry-relevant research. IJCICT follows a single-blind peer review system and carry out two rounds of review process.

The aim of journals are to provide the best choice of user license options which define how readers can reuse open access articles published on our platforms.

Journal Policy:

1. Offer a choice between a commercial and a noncommercial Creative Commons license for gold open access articles in our proprietary title. The choice is dependent on the journal in which the author chooses to publish. Please refer to the journals homepage for specific details.

2. Use the user license for our open archive content

3. IJCICT support green open access and accepted manuscripts can be self -archived following our Article Sharing Policy and are required to attach a CC-BY-NC-ND license (https://creativecommons.org/licenses/).

Choosing a License

Once selected, Creative Commons user licenses are non-revocable. IJCICT recommend authors check if their funding body (https://www.auroville.org/contents/539) requires a specific license. See the Creative Commons website for more details about what to consider before choosing a user license. Click here (https://creativecommons.org/licenses/) for a full list of user licenses used by IJCICT.
